Produzione strategica di armi e munizioni

Lo stabilimento di Arms & Ammunition, situato a sole tre ore a nord-ovest di Bucarest, è una rara risorsa strategica. Un tempo una delle strutture più grandi d'Europa, il suo vero valore non risiede solo nell'infrastruttura, ma anche nella costruzione, nella suddivisione in zone e nelle licenze: un patrimonio che richiederebbe anni per essere replicato. Insieme ai permessi operativi della nostra società, questo ci permette di avviare immediatamente la produzione, semplicemente aggiornando le attrezzature e attivando l'impianto.

Nell'attuale panorama della difesa in rapida evoluzione, la modernizzazione di armi e armamenti è fondamentale. Il nostro approccio garantisce alle forze armate l'accesso alle tecnologie e agli armamenti più recenti, fornendo un vantaggio strategico decisivo. Sfruttando questa struttura, acceleriamo il time-to-market, riduciamo le spese di capitale e rispondiamo a una domanda globale in crescita, rafforzando al contempo la sicurezza nazionale e regionale.

Mentre i produttori storici negli Stati Uniti, nel Regno Unito e in Asia lottano per soddisfare una domanda mondiale di munizioni e armi senza precedenti, un gruppo di uomini d'affari e imprenditori con un forte background militare sta facendo rinascere uno dei più grandi impianti di produzione di armamenti del mondo, situato strategicamente nell'Europa orientale.

Posizione

L'impianto di armi e munizioni è situato in posizione strategica a 450 km dal confine ucraino, in un'area di recente sviluppo. Si trova a 60 km dalla base NATO più vicina, su un raccordo ferroviario e vicino a una biforcazione del fiume Danubio. La sua vicinanza al Danubio fornisce un rapido accesso al Mar Nero e alle infrastrutture adiacenti agli alleati della NATO, offrendo notevoli vantaggi logistici e strategici.
